

JUSTICE FOR
WAGE THEFT

MIGRANTS' MONTH 2021 CALENDAR

Activity Guide

ARAB REPORTERS FOR INVESTIGATIVE JOURNALISM (ARIJ) WAGE THEFT REPORT LAUNCH

december 3-5

MFA and ARIJ collaborated in writing a report on wage theft cases in the Arab region. The report will be available in Arabic and English and is expected to be launched during the ARIJ 14th Annual Forum. The exact schedule of the report launch is still being finalized.

Click here to register

"MIGRANT WORKERS' ACCESS TO JUSTICE FOR WAGE THEFT: WHAT WORKS?" STUDY LAUNCH

4pm manila december 7

A new global study from Migrant Justice Institute Co-Executive Directors, together with the ILAW Network and Solidarity Center, identifies the most promising innovations improving migrant workers' recovery of unpaid wages through justice mechanisms.

Click here to register

TAKING BACK WHAT'S OURS: ACHIEVING JUSTICE IN THE TIME OF COVID-19

6:30pm manila december 10

On Human Rights Day, a session will be organized to highlight success stories of migrant workers and advocates in achieving justice and claiming wages through litigation processes, as well as stories of empowerment among workers who experienced wage theft during COVID-19.

Click here to register

WAGE THEFT DOCUMENTATION WORKSHOP

4pm manila december 14

As a network-building and capacity-building effort, the JFWT campaign will be facilitating an open workshop for advocates on documenting cases of wage theft experienced by migrant workers, through the JFWT documentation system. The workshop aims to further build the evidence-based advocacy of the JFWT campaign.

Click here to register

justiceforwagetheft.org

Justice for Wage Theft

@justiceforwagetheft

JUSTICE FOR
WAGE THEFT

MIGRANTS' MONTH 2021 CALENDAR

Activity Guide

2022 ILC PREP SESSION WITH CSO AND TUs ON ILO GENERAL SURVEY REPORT

december

TBC

Following the ILO General Survey 2021-2022, a session will be organized with representatives from civil society and trade unions to discuss the outcomes of the survey and strategizing ways forward in the lead up to the International Labour Conference in 2022.

Further details soon!

AN EXCHANGE WITH BUSINESSES: ROLE OF PRIVATE SECTOR IN ADDRESSING WAGE THEFT

december

TBC

A session convening civil society advocates and business representatives to discuss how employers can address and prevent wage theft experienced by migrant workers as we move towards a post-COVID world.

Further details soon!

JUSTICE FOR WAGE THEFT CRYING OUT FOR JUSTICE VOLUME 3 REPORT VIRTUAL LAUNCH

5:25pm manila december

17

On the eve of International Migrants Day, the Justice for Wage Theft campaign launches its 3rd analysis report of wage theft cases documented by partners on the ground. Read back on the first and second volume of the report on the Justice for Wage Theft website.

Click here to register

HIGH-LEVEL DISCUSSION WITH THE ILO ON WAGE THEFT

december

18

A session convening ILO representatives to have an action-oriented discussion on addressing wage theft, also organized as part of the campaign's preparatory process towards the International Labour Conference in 2022.

Further details soon!

justiceforwagetheft.org

Justice for Wage Theft

@justiceforwagetheft